Police appeal for more information regarding deaths of four men

By Michael Cox

barking@yellowad.co.uk

DETECTIVES investigating the alleged killing of four men in Barking are appealing for more information.

Police launched an investigation after the deaths of Anthony Walgate, 23, from Barnet on June 19, 2014, Gabriel Kovari, 22, from Lewisham on August 28, 2014, Daniel Whitworth, 21, from Gravesend on September 20, 2014 and Jack Taylor, 25, from Dagenham, on September 14, 2015.

Officers want to hear from anyone with information of 40 year-old Stephen Port, of Cooke Street, Barking, who stands charged in connection with the investigation.

Port was charged on October 18 with four counts of murder and with four counts of administering a poison with intent to endanger life or inflict grievous bodily harm.

Detective Chief Inspector Tim Duffield, from the Homicide and Major Crime Command, said: "We are keen to speak to anyone who may have information in connection with these incidents, no matter how insignificant you may think it is."

"If you have any reservations about speaking to the police, please rest assured that your call will be dealt with in the strictest confidence."

"For anyone who feels anxious about talking directly to the police, I would urge them to speak to organisations such as Galop, a specialist charity that supports LGBT people affected by violence and abuse. They will be able to facilitate appropriate support and advice, maintain confidentiality and treat anything you tell them with the utmost sensitivity."

Anyone with information can contact the police incident room on 020 8358 0400, Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111 or Galop on 020 7704 2040 or online at www.galop.org.uk.

Hospice urges people to buy Christmas presents for seriously ill children

MAKE WISHES COME TRUE

HAVEN House Children's Hospice is urging residents in Waltham Forest to support life-limited children this Christmas by purchasing presents from its Amazon Wish List.

For the third year running, the hospice has compiled a list of specialist toys and equipment that would be of greatest use for Haven House children.

Many are designed to produce a sensory response, and all items are gender neutral.

Along with use in the hospice at Woodford Green, some of the toys will also be included in Haven House's Toy Home Loan service, which serves Waltham Forest.

Toy Home Loan provides the parents of children with life-limited or serious medical conditions with free use of specialist toys for up to three months.

Chief executive Mike Palfreman said: "Christmas is a time when residents often want to generously donate toys to their local hospice."

"We decided to set up our wish list in 2013, in order to make sure the most appropriate toys could be donated for our children."

"To date, more than £3,000 worth of items have been purchased from the wish list, and we hope to reach our target of £4,000 by the end of the year."

Visit Amazon via the Give As You Live online shopping portal and at www.havenhouse.org.uk/get-involved/donations/isabellasappeal.

COMPETITION

Win tickets to see Simon & Garfunkel tribute show

INCREDIBLE live performances are bound together with delightfully produced audio visual footage of the original stars in the all-new Simon & Garfunkel Through the Years show.

This must-see show will be at Towngate Theatre, Basildon, on Saturday, February 6, and we have five pairs of tickets to give away to see it.

This unique production, which is both moving and powerful, tells the story of two high school chums who went on to record iconic songs that proved to be the soundtrack to the 1960s including Mrs Robinson – famous for its inclusion in the 1967 film, The Graduate.

It also introduces original movie footage and intriguing filmed interviews with 'Old Friends' Paul Simon and Art Garfunkel, and features a touching narration taken from the Victoria Kingston book, Simon and Garfunkel – The Definitive Biography.

Written and performed by Bookends, who deliver Paul and Art's delicate harmonies in deliciously authentic style, Simon and Garfunkel Through the Years is stage show perfection – a masterpiece in music, performance art and entertainment.

Featuring Paul Simon's incredible

Fraudster convicted over £1million scam

A DAGENHAM man has been convicted in connection with one of the biggest investigations into courier fraud carried out by British police.

Anrul Islam, 24, of Hedgemans Road, had pleaded guilty to money laundering and was one of a gang of nine men that have now been convicted as a result of the investigation. The group targeted elderly and vulnerable adults in courier fraud style scams with around 140 offences identified by police.

Over £1m was defrauded or attempted to be defrauded from their victims. Members of the group worked together to gain the trust of their victims before persuading them to hand cash over to 'couriers' who the victims believed were working for the police on secret investigations.

One of the victims, a 76 year-old woman from Poole, Dorset was defrauded of over £135,000 whilst a 94 year-old man from north-west London had £130,000 stolen after handing it over to the fraudsters.

The investigation was launched in December 2014 after detectives carrying out a separate counter terrorism investigation found irregular bank transfers for large sums to an individual who was later found to have travelled to Syria.

Through their enquiries, officers found that the group made 5,695 calls to over 3,700 different numbers across the UK.

Commander Richard Walton, head of the Met's Counter Terrorism Command, said: "This callous group of criminals stole vast sums of money from extremely vulnerable and elderly people from across the country."

GUILTY: Anrul Islam

"Their despicable actions have had a terrible and devastating impact on their victims with some losing their life savings. The targeting of vulnerable men and women in their 80s and 90s is quite simply beyond belief."

"We uncovered this fraud after a separate terrorist investigation found suspicious payments into a bank account of an individual who is now believed to have travelled to Syria."

He added that the investigation remains ongoing and that police will continue to arrest and prosecute anyone involved.

Fahim Islam, 20, of Monthepe Road, Stepney, Achmed Abdulaziz Ahmed, 23, of Morgan Road, Holloway and Makzumi Abukar, 23, of Holloway, all previously pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit fraud.

Mohammed Youssfi, 37, of Fulham Road, West Brompton also pleaded guilty to money laundering.

Following a five week trial at the Old Bailey, Sakaria Aden, 22, of Stoke Newington, Mohamed Dahir, 23, of Finsbury Park, and Yasser Abukar, 24, of Holloway were all found guilty of conspiracy to commit fraud on December 10 whilst Mohammed Sharif Abokar, 28, of Islington, was found guilty of money laundering on the same day.

Sentencing of all nine men will take place at a later date.

Police ask for details of tattooed man Shaw

POLICE in Barking and Dagenham have released an image of a man they would like to speak with in connection with an allegation of perverting the course of justice.

Alexander Shaw, 24, of Dagenham is described as white, 5ft 10ins with short brown hair. He has tattoos on his neck saying 'Shaw' and 'DS'.

Anyone who knows of Shaw's whereabouts is asked to contact DC Maria Hartshorn at Barking and Dagenham CID on 020 3276 1060 or via 101 quoting reference 4417320/15. Alternatively, to remain anonymous, call Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Walk around the 'leys'

A WORK colleague said she was thinking of moving from Rayleigh to Leigh, but was reluctant because of the 'lack' of countryside.

Apart from cliffs and foreshore, she had a point. But there is a series of green plots wedged into north west Leigh; and, in winter, they are more peaceful than a wet alley after dark.

The path around Great, West, Pound, Starvelark, Wyburns and Tile woods can be accessed from Belfairs Park golf course, a 15-minute hike from Leigh Station. Trees form a 400-acre grove of oak, sweet chestnut, hornbeam and holly, circling Bramble Hall and Daws Heath Road. Once the haunt of druid ritual, the pagan silence is still deafening. At times I feel the need to check I'm not lost. The lonely walker unwittingly disturbs the quiet by spooking flocks of wood pigeon in the canopy. The birds burst into the air, beating their frightened wings louder than firecrackers, catching me out every time.

The wooded areas were defined in pre-Saxon times by homesteads created in the tree 'clearings', known as 'leighs', 'lees' or 'leys'.

Clearance gave its name to the surrounding Rayleigh, Had-leigh, Hock-leigh, Thunders-leigh, etc. These plots and their grassy pastures were used as common land strips running from the Thames, northwards. Their agricultural and mystical worth was associated with the magical Prittle Brook, until the Norman invaders claimed the land as their own in 1066. In later centuries, the woods became associated with two industries: charcoal and smuggling (from Old Leigh). The charcoal has long gone. The police helicopter still buzzes overhead late into the urban night.

Redbridge youngsters come together for art peace project

PEACE: Children transform old boxes and packaging into nativity scene

Community art Xmas message

CHILDREN from the most deprived wards in Redbridge took part in a peace project focusing on community art.

Organisers said the aim of the project was to share the true message of Christmas. Children transformed old boxes and packaging into a nativity scene.

The nativity is now displayed in the window of the British Pakistani Christian Association at 57 Green Lane, Ilford, and has been described as a 'great gift to the community' by local pastor Bryon Jones of Ilford's Eden Christian Centre.

Wilson Chowdhry, chairman of the British Pakistani Christian Association said the display had received an overwhelming amount of positive comments from people of all faiths. He said: "Children were mesmerised before our window this morning as they walked to the two local primary schools."

"For too long churches and christian institutions have ignored this long-standing christian tradition, in fear of over zealous bureaucrats and their political correctness."

on new river crossings in east and southeast London

We'd like your feedback on proposed new river crossings at Gallions Reach and Belvedere. The crossings would:

- Make it easier to cross the Thames between east and southeast London
- Help reduce cross-river journey times
- Create opportunities for new cross-river public transport links and improvements to walking and cycling options
- Support London's growing economy by better connecting businesses, improving access to jobs and encouraging development

HISTORY ON YOUR DOORSTEP

Residence at Dedham

SIR Alfred Munnings (1878-1959) was a major figure in the great tradition of English equestrian art, and celebrated for his representations of English rural life in the first half of the 20th century. Immensely successful, yet controversial, he was the scourge of modern art while president of the Royal Academy.

As a boy, in 1898, Munnings visited Flatford on the Essex/ Suffolk border with his father. Looking back to those days he wrote, "We found it beautiful, unspoilt, as in the days of Constable. The mill was working – no curiosity for sight-seers then. There were locks, barges, towpaths and horses. No bottles or food wrappers littering the meadows. No sound of car or char-a-banc [horse-drawn carriage or early motor coach]. Only the sound of the mill, the ducks in the stream and the breeze in the trees."

As an adult, Munnings followed in the footsteps of his artistic inspiration, John Constable, and bought the 'house of his dreams' – Castle House in Dedham – where he lived and worked for more than 40 years. His desire to make his paintings accessible after his death in 1959 resulted in Lady Munnings opening Castle House to the public in 1961.

Today, The Munnings Collection, of more than 650 paintings, welcomes visitors from all over the world, with changing displays of the artist's work. There is also an amazing archive of letters, photographs and artifacts presented throughout the rooms of this elegant Tudor and Georgian building.

Visitors can get a sense of the working artist from his surviving studio in the grounds; and learn more about the man from the original furniture, photographs and personal items, all of which are still in place in Castle House. One undoubted highlight being Lady Munnings' stuffed Pekinese dog 'Black Knight' in a glass case!

Incidentally, Munnings was also one of the fundraisers for Gainsborough's House in nearby Sudbury – now a museum dedicated to the leading British painter also inspired by the landscape of the Essex / Suffolk border.

Downton Abbey – The Finale, ITV, 8.45pm

Julian Fellowes bids farewell to the Crawleys with one last festive special, catching up with the Abbey's residents at the tail-end of 1925. Mary tries to build bridges, but Edith's secret continues to pose a threat. As Henry settles into the role of husband, scars left by Charlie's death are slow to heal, while Carson struggles to come to terms with developments that prove even he is not invulnerable to change. Spratt's moonlighting venture is threatened by the conniving of Denker, and Daisy may have missed her chance with an admirer.

Mrs Brown's Boys Christmas Special, BBC1, 9.45pm

The dotting mother-of-six is determined to have a safe and peaceful Christmas at home this year. However, with Mark and Betty arguing about the reappearance of his first love Bubbles, carol singers haunting her every waking hour and Buster installing a Christmas tree with a very unusual safety feature, how will she manage to survive? The first of two festive editions of the comedy, written by and starring Brendan O'Carroll, with guest star Noddy Holder.

Dickensian, BBC1, 7pm

Every festive season, there are countless versions of A Christmas Carol on TV, but this new series is attempting to do something more ambitious with the world of Charles Dickens. The 20-part drama takes some of the writer's most memorable characters, from Scrooge to Great Expectations' Miss Havisham, and gets them rubbing shoulders in 19th-century London. The cast includes Stephen Rea, Pauline Collins, Caroline Quentin, and Tuppence Middleton, who wins the prize for the actor with the most Dickensian name.

Peter & Wendy, ITV, 8pm

Lucy Rose, a 12-year-old girl with a serious heart condition, is admitted to Great Ormond Street Hospital to await treatment. On the night before her operation, Lucy reads JM Barrie's tale of Peter Pan to her fellow patients, and as she drifts off to sleep, her mind conjures up the magical world of Neverland. Stepping into the role of Wendy Darling, the youngster meets Peter, and joins him in battling Captain Hook. A re-imagining of Barrie's tale, starring Stanley Tucci, Laura Fraser, Hazel Doupe and Paloma Faith.

U2: Innocence and Experience Live in Paris, BBC2, 10pm

Some bands who were big in the 1980s really couldn't give their new albums away. Not U2 though – nearly 40 years after they first formed in Dublin, they remain one of the biggest acts in the world, which made it all the more surprising when in 2014, they decided to make their last album, Songs of Innocence, available free to iTunes users. The initial broadcast of this event, which was recorded in Paris in early November, was postponed following the terrorist attacks, but is well worth the wait.

The Frank Sinatra Story, Channel 5, 9pm

Frank Sinatra was such an influential figure in the history of popular music, that one of his many nicknames was simply 'The Voice'. So, it's unsurprising that the centenary of his birth this month has been marked with a number of tributes, including his own day on Channel 5. As well as a reminding us of his Oscar-winning movie career with the films Anchors Aweigh and High Society, the channel is also bringing us this documentary, which looks at his remarkable career from a very British perspective.

Gogglebox 2015, Channel 4, 9pm
A chance to see some of the best moments of the past year on Gogglebox, revisiting comments from armchair critics including Leon and June, Steph and Dom, Christopher and Stephen, and Sandy and Sandra. From Saturday night entertainment juggernauts to the week's big soap storylines, and from hard-hitting documentary series to gritty drama, the Gogglebox households deliver critiques of the week's popular and topical TV shows, sparking debates and giving the audience the chance to rewatch memorable moments.

A Life on Screen - Stephen Fry, BBC2, 9pm

In 2007, BBC4 broadcast a variety of programmes in tribute to Stephen Fry, to mark his 50th birthday. This included the documentary 50 Not Out, which charted his rise to fame in a variety of fields, and also featured Fry's celebrity friends and fans discussing his finer points. Now, eight years on, this programme seems to do pretty much the same thing. The aim is to give viewers a tour through Fry's career, via a selection of clips from his time in the Cambridge Footlights through his years in comedy, to his achievements on both the big and small screens.

David Beckham: For the Love of the Game, BBC1, 9pm

David Beckham has played football all over the world. During his career, he played for clubs in England, the USA, Spain, Italy and France, and represented his nation in countries too numerous to mention. Now, two years after his retirement, he's back on the road again as he takes part in seven matches on seven different continents, visiting Papua New Guinea, Nepal, Buenos Aires, Djibouti, Antarctica and Miami.

Jools' Annual Hootenanny 2015, BBC2, 11.10pm
Jools Holland presents his 23rd annual Hootenanny, featuring a mixture of veteran artists and modern chart stars. Tom Jones performs some of his greatest hits, Jess Glynne tops off a great year with songs from her debut album, and Paul Weller steams into the studio on the back of a sold-out British tour to perform songs from his 12th solo album Saturns Pattern – and a treat or two from the Jam's back catalogue. Others appearing include Hozier, James Bay, Future Islands, Beth Hart, Jeff Beck, Pauline Black and Arthur 'Gaps' Hendrickson of the Selecter, KT Tunstall, Rhiannon Giddens and – of course – Ruby Turner.

Bryan Adams Rocks Big Ben Live, BBC1, 11.30pm
In what's fast becoming a tradition, Bryan Adams becomes the latest musician to perform on New Year's Eve in Central London, following in the footsteps of Gary Barlow, and Queen and Adam Lambert. The Canadian rocker blasts out his greatest hits to an excited capacity crowd, only pausing to take a break for the chimes of Big Ben.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as "trade", "dealer", "agent", "wholesaler", "JT" etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of: (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement; (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
6. Where shrinkage of advertisement resources for whatever reason the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimeters. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
7. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
8. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republishing or allowances.
9. All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance charge, payable by the advertiser to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
10. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
11. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
12. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions. 12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
14. Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
15. Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
16. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
17. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
18. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
19. The Publisher may provide voucher codes for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
20. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belongs to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.
21. Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box no., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in "Trade" advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.
22. Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.
23. Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors. Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes. Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

DRAW FOR SICK LIST HAMMERS

West Ham

West Ham United 0-0 Stoke City
Brian Jeeves reporting
from Upton Park

INJURY hit West Ham United picked up a useful Barclays Premier League point from this goalless, but otherwise entertaining encounter.

With their casualty list continuing to lengthen, even the most optimistic of Hammers fans could see this was going to be a tough afternoon. New Zealand international Winston Reid being the latest casualty, joining a week previous. Dimitri Payet, Diafra Sakho, Victor Moses and Manuel Lanzini on the treatment table.

Visitors Stoke City, under the guidance of Mark Hughes, arrived in East London in a bullish mood having impressively dispatched Manchester City at the Britannia Stadium, with Austrian striker Marko Arnautovic having taken the plaudits with a virtuoso display in scoring both of the Potters goals.

But it was West Ham who started the brighter, and came close to opening the scoring when Cheikhou Kouyate's fierce drive was beaten away by Jack Buckland.

Seconds later the Potters England international keeper did well to cling to Michail Antonio's piledriver as the Hammers probed for an early opener. Meanwhile, Stoke went close when Marco van Ginkel was a whisker away from making contact with Ibrahim Afellay's delicious centre.

The visitors went even closer when van Ginkel somehow managed to fire wide from close range, this after more great flank play from Afellay.

Stoke had settled, and should have taken the lead when Arnautovic directed agonisingly the wrong side of an upright after former Hammers favourite Glen Johnson had picked him out. Indeed, an air of unease had taken hold of the Boleyn faithful as their charges struggled to make any real headway against a resolute Potters rearguard.

The Hammers rallied, but Buckland was equal to James Collins' goalbound effort following a melee in the Stoke box.

The home side went even closer when Erik Pieters managed to deflect Michail Antonio's effort over after Cresswell had delivered from the left.

After the break West Ham turned the screw. Collins went close to tuning home Mauro Zarate's pinpoint flag-kick, while Buckland scrambled Andy Carroll's diving header to safety.

Buckland continued to frustrate the Hammers, this time palming away Antonio's attempted scissor-kick. At the other end Arnautovic tested Adrian, but the Spaniard was handily placed to rebuff the effort.

Stoke came desperately close to grabbing the lead when Arnautovic's deflected dead-ball effort cannoned back off the bar, Bojan uncharacteristically firing the rebound high into the stand.

The end-to-end nature of the contest continued. Buckland produced a brilliant one-handed save as Cresswell's strike looked set for the top corner of the Potters net, while Adrian used his feet to deny Arnautovic after Bojan had slipped him in.

In the closing stages Zarate's thundering strike beat Buckland, but much to the home crowds anguish came back off the foot of the post. Then Buckland needed every inch of his frame to tip over Kouyate's outrageous free-kick from all of 35-yards.

But Stoke almost snatched it when substitute Mame Biram Diouf shot straight at Adrian after Bojan had once again crafted the opening.

Deep into stoppage time Johnson denied West Ham what would have been a dramatic winner, nodding Kouyate's header off the line after James Tomkins had hooked back into the danger zone.

Speaking after the game, a satisfied Slaven Bilic stated: "It was a very entertaining draw, and an entertaining game. It was full of energy, high tempo and both teams defended really well."

"You had to create something really special to open the gate and find that space, to get a clear cut chance, both teams have done that from the counter attacks and the set pieces."

"It was a very good game, it could have ended 1-1 or 2-2, with a little bit of luck we could have won this game, but so could they. It was a fair result."

Stoke City chief Mark Hughes said: "I think it was a close game, I think as 0-0's go there was plenty of incident. Somebody told me there were 30-odd attempts on goal between both teams. I think as 0-0's go it was a reasonable spectacle, I think we certainly played our part in that."

"All in all it was a decent game, a different test for us today in comparison to last week."

West Ham United are next in Barclays Premier League action on Sunday December 20, when they visit the Liberty Stadium to face strugglers Swansea City (4pm).

West Ham United: Adrian, Aaron Cresswell, Alex Song (Enner Valencia), James Tomkins, Cheikhou Kouyate, Andy Carroll, Mauro Zarate, Mark Noble (Capt), James Collins, Angelo Ogbonna, Michail Antonio (Nikica Jelavic). ### Non-league round-up

Trophy woe for region's teams

By Brian Jeeves

IT proved to be a difficult afternoon for our local teams competing in the first round proper of the FA Trophy.

Chelmsford City took the lead at Cheltenham Town through Billy Bricknell. However, it was the former Football League outfit who made progress after Rob Dickie's hat trick earned the Robins a 3-1 victory.

Tilbury found themselves 4-0 down to National Leaguer's Welling United after an hour of their game at Chadfields. And despite a brave fightback that saw Jack Carlile, Kurt Smith and Daniel Glazier score in the final eight minutes, it was the Kent side who held out to win by the odd goal in seven.

East Thurrock United completed a miserable Trophy day after crashing 4-1 to Maidenhead United at Rookery Hill. Kyle Ruel had briefly brought the Rocks level with a goal on the stroke of half time.

And it was an equally frustrating afternoon for our Ryman Premier League clubs, with only Billericay Town tasting success. Joe Ellul, Teddy Nesbitt and Onome Sodje were on target as Town extended their unbeaten run to eight games with a 3-1 win over Hendon at New Lodge.

Brentwood Town picked up a useful point from a 0-0 draw at Metropolitan Police, while Harrison Chatting and Martin Tuohy were on target for Canvey Island at Burgess Hill Town, but the Gulls went down 3-2. And it was a defeat for Grays Athletic who crashed 3-1 at Hampton & Richmond Borough.

In the League One North Great Waking Rovers played out an entertaining 2-2 draw with Harlow Town at Burroughs Park. Bradley Vaughan and Billy Johnson grabbed the villagers goals, this after Harlow had earlier led 2-0. And it was the same outcome at Mill Field where Aveley and Dereham Town shared four goals. Billy Holland and David Fallah with the Millers goals.

Barkingside held on for a point from their goalless draw with Brightlingsea Regent at Cricklefield Stadium. Side were forced to play more than an hour with ten men following the dismissal of Paul Wright. Elsewhere Romford went down 3-1 at home to Cheshunt.

Hullbridge Sports made further progress in the FA Vase, winning an Essex derby with Stanway Rovers 2-0 at Lower Road. FC Romania are also in the hat after a 2-0 win at Hertford Town. But it's the end of the Wembley dream for Basildon United who went down 4-0 at AFC Dunstable.

In the Essex Senior League Burnham Ramblers saw off London Bari by three goals to nil at Leslie Field, while Clapton ended a miserable recent run with a resounding 4-1 win over Waltham Forest at the Old Spotted Dog. Barking were the ESL's big winners, hammering Stansted 5-0 on their travels, while Takeley took the points after a 3-0 win over Ilford.

Selected action in the ProKit UK Essex Olympian League saw White Ensign win their Premier League clash with Han-nakins Farm at the Len Forge Centre.

Old Chelmsfordians went down 2-0 to Canning Town in Division One, while in Division Two Catholic United saw off Rochford Town by four goals to one.

Orient miss out on big Chelsea payday in FA Cup

Leyton Orient

Scunthorpe United 3 Orient 0
Emirates FA Cup
2nd Round Replay
By Rowland Lyons
at Glanford Park

LEYTON Orient missed out on a big third round pay day at Chelsea, after three second-half goals left them to concentrate on their promotion push.

Despite dominating the first period, a Jean-Yves M'Voto own goal and further strikes from Jake King and sub, Hekeeb Adelakun completed the O's Tuesday night of misery in North Lincolnshire.

Top scorer, Jay Simpson drove inches over straight from the kick-off, before play swung to the visiting goal, but the diving Alex Cisak was equal to Kyle Wooton's downward header.

The confident O's edged closer on ten minutes when Bradley Pritchard was denied by a combination of the post and a desperate block by Charlie Goode.

Sunny hit back on 14 minutes and Luke Williams's goalbound set-piece saw the O's defensive wall - as far back as their penalty spot - do its job and keep Cisak's goal intact.

Orient continued to ask all the questions and a Jobi McAnuff lay-off set up the overlapping Sean Clohessy, who saw his cross-shot blocked, before Jean-Yves M'Voto headed the resultant flag-kick over.

From another corner driven in by Lloyd James on 28 minutes, skipper Mathieu Baudry was unlucky to see his bullet header pushed over by the busy Daniels.

Palmer should have put the O's ahead a minute later, after disposing the hesitant Daniels, on the edge of the penalty area. But, his chip lacked height and Scott Wiseman was on hand to clear.

United offered very little in reply before the interval, and Scott Laird - from a left back position - tried his luck on 37 minutes, but his effort was easily blocked.

On the stroke of half-time Simpson fashioned out a chance from nothing - only to be blocked on the 18-yard line.

Straight after the restart Laird again fancied his chances and let fly with a dipping cross-shot that Cisak had to watch fly just over his bar.

Not for the first time this season - though - the O's were made to pay for their sloppiness at the back. There seemed no danger when McAnuff picked out Clohessy on 54 minutes. But, the full-back dithered and within a split second the ball was in the Orient goal courtesy of a wicked M'Voto deflection from Neal Bishop's off-target effort.

Skipper King then rubbed salt into the O's wounds only five minutes later when he scrambled home Williams's corner kick, despite the presence of several Orient bodies on the goal line.

With nothing to lose, boss, Ian Hendon, made a double substitution on 62 minutes, replacing Palmer with John Marquis and Blair Turgott adding some pace on the right, sacrificing James's midfield guile.

But, the switch didn't work with Marquis only managing a late, close-range header - though off target - and Jack Payne saw his speculative 25-yard chip easily gathered by a now underworked Daniels.

Late sub, Adelakun added insult to injury with a simple tap-in deep into stoppage time, to leave a disappointed Hendon admitting: "If you don't take your chances, then you don't win games of football - it's as simple as that."

"We had numerous opportunities from set plays. We had lots of the ball in their box - but never took the chances."

Hendon added: "I'll now have to pick the players up for Saturday (at home to Yeovil). It's an important game for us. We've got to start turning these draws in the League into wins."

Keeper Cisak said: "We've got to cut these mistakes out if we want to get promoted."
